In Your Eyes

am I right?

I climb up to be maybe one more unseen but I just can't stop walking in the only direction

the best time is with you I feel safe at your side but I need to leave home that doesn't mean you're alone it's written inside your pure clean eyes they say I'm losing myself I don't need someone else

I share the same fear as you there's no-one else like you yes and only with you I can handle the truth

am I right ?

I'm not gone yet but I'm ready to go but not without you you need to come with me too

with the lazy things we do you might control the best days that are able to come

I want to see in your eyes without doubts any thoughts we even have the same feelings I'm alright

am I right?

Something Invisible

a lonely time could be the price for me is it my future how can I know what if in the end

is that picture I never wanted to see a lonely time

could be the price for me sure I don't hope so but what if I'm right

is that feeling that never left me leave me

even when I want to sleep
the feeling I always keep is coming so strong undeniable
imaginations
I can't control

is it my future I still don't hope so

is that fiction I wanted to leave

imaginations

it's killing me slowly and so at least I can say I know if something's so strong,
then I'm caught in

Small Steps

one step ahead
and one step out we both get used to be abused we are all night used so confused never return we are so concerned

we are sleeping inside
with a couple of dreams
get lost inside
stay for a while

a different life
and a different face
somewhere else
at a different place

we try our best we´re going far we try our best we´re going on say nothing more

that's not what i want please slow down slow down

a couple of times in a different life in a different light you see things different
one step out the summer is here the winter is gone

All Possibilities

maybe your family
in what do you believe maybe your honesty

some things will never change but they still seem so strange
you take them all away
how can I make you stay I try forever more

you help me to survive
from the background you shine
introduce me your life

of different qualities
maybe your history

Give Away

I tend to do too much for you but after all i learned to doubt learned to speak from my heart

I need more hands
I've got just two
I dont have much
but i give it to you Im living in
two worlds with you

sometimes it makes no sense to me I wonder how people can be
I think im wasting time I miss time alone with my lonely soul

I give you what you need
is my wrong identity

I dont need much to live
if you would ask me what I need a little love and a cup of tea

I still believe in what I feel I will always need you

But you dont need me at all no matter what i do it means nothing to you

is my wrong identity

a little love in a simple world

everywhere except in dreams nothing is like it should be

Good People

too many good people out there

stop thinking about stop feeling down stop war outside stop the humans before they fight

and all we want
is the same
finally we're never fair we need too much

stop fooling around stop me if i'm lying this world is full of violence

cause we need too much

cause we need to much

do you think the same?

I Just Let Go

what has never been mine so I just quit what has never began a fantasy you built with your promises
a fantasy you kept alive with your plans but all that I can see right now is just a lie don't tell me how how I can feel
I just wait and hide
it's not worth the fight
the seal is broken my faith is gone
is just a dream that's passing by I feel nothing
I just wait and hide
it's not worth to fight I walk around you I don't want to see you anymore

Rescue Me

whenever you are staring at me and I uncover everything that I want to hide from you usually but emotions let me show what I really feel inside my heart come on rescue me when everybody is staring at me when I uncover everything that I want to hide away from everyone

come rescue me wait for me and stay

Come Together

the difference has no meaning fingers can be healing

come with me anytime and don't hesitate to be blind when everyone can see only us

I come together with everyone we come together with everyone its just a little far, a little too far
a little far, in the real world

it's just a matter a matter of time before we can fly to another sky you can hide, we are beneath you when you disappear we'll find you

Too Late

altogether we run for life and liberty

I can not take it for free

that little thing called life I hear it whisper sometimes

but no I'm too far away

you are getting late
push on, push on

but before I see them most has never been mine

you are late

Tomorrow

am I alive?
I took no notice
no surprises, no-one's around

tomorrow could break down then all my pillows could not help me to save me from ground will this end, will this Stop nobody knows that by heart

when are we willing to know the truth?
we've all got to know the truth this is easy I thought at first but then I recognised the worst I saw people everywhere didn't noticed me nor care every night I hope the same I will never end this way but when I stand up in the rain it will never be the same will this end, when will Stop nobody knows it from the heart

are we willing to know the truth?

Surrender

not forgiven not forgotten surrender now and realise you are wrong

it had to be a mistake not unseen and not just one you made so far we know some more

can't you see we're staring at you we don't know what is happening we feel insecure

you go to far what does it take to make you clear we have enough

for all the people you bring pain they're innocent but right inside suffering you must be blind or cold as a stone notice that you stand inside a circle together with us
